Angels in the Moonlight by Caimh McDonnell - Book Review ...

"Angels in the Moonlight" is a nice inter- mediate percussion ensemble piece reminiscent of a drum corps ballade. While it calls for a large number of players, the instruments used are those common to a school's standard percussion inventory. The themes are simple and catchy, and the texture is well balanced.

Angels first baseman Jared Walsh hits a single against the Colorado Rockies on Sunday. (Justin Edmonds / Getty Images) Two years ago, the Angels wondered if the best way to get Walsh to the major leagues was to have him moonlight as a left-handed reliever. He pitched in college, so a return to the mound came easily.
