The Ford Cortina is a car that was built by Ford of Britain in various guises from 1962 to 1982, and was the United Kingdom's best-selling car of the 1970s. The Cortina was produced in five generations (Mark I through to Mark V, although officially the last one was only the Cortina 80 facelift of the Mk IV) from 1962 until 1982.

Ford Cortina - Wikipedia

It'd be easy to write off the Ford Cortina MkII as just another boxy saloon from the 1960s, but this would be to do it a major disservice. A development of the ground-breaking Cortina MkI, the MkII featured its predecessor's lightweight construction but with much more cabin space.
