The European Witch Craze Of

A witch-hunt, or a witch purge, is a search for people who have been labeled witches or a search for evidence of witchcraft. The classical period of witch-hunts in Early Modern Europe and Colonial America took place in the Early Modern period or about 1450 to 1750, spanning the upheavals of the Reformation and the Thirty Years' War, resulting in an estimated 35,000 to 50,000 executions.

Witch-hunt - Wikipedia

The period of the European witch trials, with the largest number of fatalities, seems to have occurred between 1560 and 1630. Authors have debated whether witch trials were more intense in Catholic or Protestant regions. However, the intensity of the persecutions had not so much to do with Catholicism or Protestantism as such, because there are ...
